

This is a detailed cadastral map of a coastal area, likely in the Netherlands, showing numerous land parcels with their respective numbers. The map includes a coastline on the right side, with a road labeled 'Kijkduinweg' running along it. Several parcels are marked with small black squares and numbers, possibly indicating specific features or structures. The map is oriented with North at the top, as indicated by a small 'N' in the upper right corner.

Key features and labels on the map include:

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape with a cadastral map overlay. A red circle highlights a specific area in the upper left, with a red arrow pointing to it from the text 'ZONA P.I.P. "D3"'.

An aerial photograph showing a large, rectangular property outlined in black. The property is divided into two main sections: a large, mostly empty green field on the left and a paved area on the right containing several vehicles, including cars and trucks, and some industrial equipment. To the left of the property is a large, brown, tilled agricultural field. To the right is a paved road with a few vehicles. Further to the right is another green field. In the bottom left corner, there is a north arrow pointing upwards and a scale bar labeled '0 100' feet.
